

Hi kids,

Heard that you'd been working hard
'Cuz the xbox can't be marred.

We worry 'bout you kids up there,
You pull long hours, and your hair.

The night is late, and still you work.
Your heroics are like Captain Kirk.

You're building stacks of soda cans;
Caffeine stops your shaking hands.

We hope your health withstands this test.
We're sure it will; you're the best.

The midnight oils your bodies burn,
We cannot help but feel concern.

How's your fridge stocked? Have you eaten?
Got Web creative that can't be beaten?

The first two problems we have fixed,
But the latter issue can't be nixed.

Let us help you out real soon,
Lest xbox turn you to a loon.

What is White Horse? It's a crazy name.
Online marketing, that's our game.

We're forward thinking, business first
Your marketing budget we won't burst.

Creative thinking, a designer's zoo.
Don't forget, great poems, too.

bCentral, Carpoint, they've been with us.
MSN? Yeah, we get their business.

Take care of yourselves; We know how.
Pick up the phone. Call us now.

Love,

White Horse
